

No matter how well you think you know a place, there are always new aspects to discover. Use the treasure map to discover more of Malham. Like all the best treasure maps, this one may hold a few mysteries. It's not drawn to scale and some of the features might not be exactly where you'd expect. Look carefully to find everything!

 This symbol on the map represents a place of interest: it could be anything beautiful, quirky, historic, or fun...

Please support friendly local businesses, cafes, pubs and shops. Many will be able to suggest where to find these treasures.

How many of these have you discovered?

- Yorkshire Dales National Park Centre
- Natural limestone amphitheatre of Malham Cove
- Wildflowers growing between the clints and grikes on the limestone pavements
- Malham Tarn, England's highest freshwater lake.
- Gordale Scar
- Janet's Foss
- Secret Garden Bistro at Beck Hall by the beck
- Great cafes and pubs scattered through-out the village
- Huge animal footprints by the beck along the Woodland Walk
- Penfold by the Youth Hostel
- Town Head Barn with a small exhibition about field barns and farming in the Dales
- Fords and small bridges criss-crossing the beck – how many?
- Annabelle Bradley, the Blacksmith at Malham Smithy
- Look just outside Malham to spot old drover's lanes & traditional Dales field systems

Nearby:

- Town End Farm Shop for local produce and Yorkshire-made gifts
- Spot the Belties (Belted Galloways) and Highland Cattle on the moors
- Peregrine Falcons from mid May to July at Malham Cove
- Discover the stocks and fishes at St. Michael the Archangel in Kirkby Malham

Download our list of 100 Different Ways to Discover the Dales from DalesDiscoveries.com

Please share your favourite places on social media #DalesDiscoveries