

No matter how well you think you know a place, there are always new aspects to discover.

Use the treasure map to discover more of Richmond.

✿ This symbol shows places of interest: it could be anything beautiful, quirky, historic, or fun...

Like all the best treasure maps, this one may hold a few mysteries.

It's not drawn to scale and some of the features might not be exactly where you'd expect. Look carefully to find everything!

Please support friendly local businesses, cafes, pubs and shops. Many will be able to suggest where to find these treasures.

How many of these can you discover?

- Richmond Castle and the story of the conscientious objectors
- Georgian Theatre Royal – enjoy a tour or a performance
- Part of the set from James Herriot TV series at Richmondshire Museum
- The Green Howards Regimental Museum & stories of war and peace
- Richmond Obelisk in the middle of the market place
- Galleries:
 - Showcase Gallery
 - Lucy Pittaway
 - Mackenzie Thorpe Arthaus Gallery
 - Caroline Hudson
- Beautiful houses and Georgian architecture around Frenchgate & Newbiggin
- Castle Walk with its fine views, and the Swale waterfall
- Food producers, shops, gallery, cinema and exhibitions at Richmond Station
- Easby Abbey and the lovely walk there from Richmond Station
- Shops, galleries, pubs and cafes in & around the sloping cobbled market square

Download the list of 100 Different Ways to Discover the Dales from DalesDiscoveries.com
Please share your favourite places on social media #DalesDiscoveries